City of White Plains 18th Annual ST. PATRICK’S DAY PARADE

White Plains, NY – March 9, 2015. On Saturday, March 14th the City of White Plains will be wearing green for the 18th Annual St. Patrick’s Day Parade. This year’s Grand Marshall will be Mary Beth Walsh, MD, the Executive Medical Director and CEO of Burke Rehabilitation Hospital in White Plains. The parade will begin promptly at Noon at the intersection of Mamaroneck Avenue and Old Mamaroneck Road and proceed up Mamaroneck Avenue to Main Street, ending in front of City Hall.

The White Plains Parade celebrates the contributions of the Irish people to human-kind through their rich culture and music, their indomitable spirit, and their legendary warmth and humor.

This year’s event will feature 22 marching bands, 7 floats and 80 community groups and organizations.

Ample parking is available in City lots and garages. The Shapham Place lot (17 Shapham Place) is located close to the start of the parade route. The Chester – Maple (9 Chester Avenue) and Lyon Place (1 Lyon Place) Garages are located mid-route. The Hamilton – Main Garage (365 Hamilton Avenue) is located close to the end of the route, behind City Hall. Click for more information about parking options in White Plains.
